

Attorney General Steve Carter Fights Public Corruption

East Chicago Riverboat Gaming Revenue Expenditures by Second Century & Foundations Scrutinized

Attorney General Carter will Appeal Court Ruling Allowing Second Century to Avoid Public Scrutiny of $16 Million Release

“I will continue to fight for transparency and integrity when funds intended for public benefit are in question. The aggressive defense against providing an accounting only raises more questions about how the money has been spent.”

Indiana Attorney General Steve Carter

State Still Focused on Casino Cash
Editorial, Post-Tribune, August 6, 2007

Attorney General Demands Accounting of $16 million: Where did the money go?

East Chicago Second Century, Inc. (Second Century) needs to provide an accounting of $16 million it has received over 10-years. Carter has filed a lawsuit seeking a court-ordered accounting from the for-profit organization and says a public charitable trust should be established to ensure gambling revenue is being utilized for the public's benefit. Release

Attorney General Demands Account of Casino Millions
Times Northwest Indiana, March 30, 2007

Second Century Seeks to Evade Scrutiny Release

Second Century needs to give up struggle for control of casino cash
Editorial, Northwest Indiana Times, June 18, 2007

AG Carter Reports Findings on East Chicago Foundations

Keep trying to untangle EC Casino Mess
Editorial, Northwest Indiana Times, June 28, 2007

AG Carter Reports Investigative Findings on East Chicago Second Century, Inc. to Indiana Gaming Commission Release

“There is sufficient evidence that leads us to believe that Second Century has not utilized the funds it has received over the years for the public benefit they were intended, and misled the Commission on several occasions.”

Indiana Attorney General Steve Carter

View the Interim Investigative Report
View Exhibits

Official Opinion Released

The Attorney General has advised the Indiana Gaming Commission that it has the authority to sever local development agreements with riverboat licensees.

Official Opinion
2006-2

Carter Urges Courts to Deem Contractual Agreement Void
Release

The attorney general's office continues to urge the courts to deem a contractual agreement to channel riverboat gaming revenues to a private, for-profit corporation illegal as a matter of public policy.

Carter Presses Onward to Force
Court Ordered Accounting of $16 million in expenditures by Second Century (Release)

“There is a strong basis for moving forward and continuing to present the arguments that this entity should be accountable for $16 million that appears to have vanished,” Carter said. “There has been no proof that these funds intended for economic development have not been wasted. The public is left to wonder how the $16 million has actually helped them.”

Steve Carter

